

vs 1

Good-bye, m X! You were always there for me.

I used to read you er'ny eve-ning on the train.

I loved reading all a-bout the world a-round me instead of looking at the scenery outside

Goodbye, m X!

No more reading you

on the train, No more

vs 2

looking at your lovely

colour photos.

Without an

m X,

it's harder to ignore the crowd

round me.

I wish I were

deaf, deaf to the world a-round me, deaf to the chatter all a-round, oh please stop humming!

(blocks ears)

I wish I had your colour pages, your lovely pa-ges

vs 3

Without an m X,

it's harder to avoid the crowd a-round me.

49

I wish I were numb, numb to the world around me,

53

numb to the rudely jostling crowd.

57

Oh please don't touch me! (shies away from the crowd)

61

What were you thinking?

65

Vs 4

When I had an mX, I never noticed

69

how bad it smells!

73

I'm so glad I'm leaving a-lighting from the train Good bye,

77

mX! (leaves the train)
